VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO ASSIST AREA SENIORS IN JOINING COMUPTER REVOLUTION

The Monroe County Office for the Aging and the Jewish Community Center (JCC) are seeking volunteers to host SeniorNet computer classes that provide computer instruction to older adults. Volunteers, ages 50 and over, will provide instruction three hours per week, for eight weeks. The classes will be held this spring at the JCC, 1200 Edgewood Avenue.

Volunteers must have a basic knowledge of computers. Technical wizards are also welcome. The first informational session will be held on Monday, February 7, 2000, at either 1:00 p.m. or 7:30 p.m., at the JCC. To register, call Jacob Schreiber at 461-2000, ext. 249.

SeniorNet is a nonprofit organization that provides adults, ages 50 and older, with peer training for computer and Internet skills. SeniorNet is made possible by gifts from IBM and a personal contribution by Natalie Goldberg, and is sponsored by the JCC and the Monroe County Office for the Aging.
